

International Alliance for Global Health Dermatology

GLODERM Mentorship Programme 2022

Mentee Application Essay Questions

Please tell us why are you interested in global health dermatology and joining the GLODERM Mentorship Programme?

Leadership experience: Being a visionary, but also being flexible, humble, creative and collaborative are important personal traits in becoming a global health dermatology leader. Can you give an example of a time where you demonstrated leadership in one of these ways? Please be as specific as possible. * Maximum of 2,000 characters (approx. 300 words)

Is there a dermatology focused public health gap, problem in your community, or project you are working on that you wish to address? * Maximum of 2,000 characters (approx. 300 words)

How will you implement what you learn from the Programme to create sustainable change for your community or project in the future? * For example, based on your own leadership skills and ambitions, relevant experience and interest in global health dermatology, creating change and impact in your community. Maximum of 2,000 characters (approx. 300 words)